Entrepreneurship Development Program (EDP)

RPL is a key component of the Pradhan Mantri Kaushal Vikas Yojna (PMKVY) 2.0. RPL largely refers to an assessment process used to evaluate a person's existing Skill sets, knowledge and experience gained either by formal, non-formal or informal learning. RPL may be leveraged to not just recognize the skills of the roles holders but also upskill them.

UDYOG MITRA

The Udyog Mitra model envisions a mechanism to drive “Skills by Industry for Industry”. By this model HSDM aims to institutionalise a robust “Earn& Learn” model for the youth that integrates Industry driven Skilling and Apprenticeship, leading to employability. This industry-centric flexible model would incentivize Industry to actively participate and seamlessly enable this value-chain

Miscellaneous Achievements

Launch of Skilling Portal of Haryana under the Chairmanship by Hon'ble Chief Minister, Haryana on 22nd Feb, 2021

Haryana Chief Minister, Sh. Manohar Lal said that emphasis should be laid on starting new courses for the skill development of youth so as to ensure that they get ample employment opportunities. Besides this, to popularize these courses among youth, monitoring and certification of the courses related to skill development should be done at Shri Vishwakarma Skill University Dudhola Palwal, directed the Chief Minister.

The Chief Minister was speaking at the launch of Skilling Portal of the Haryana Skill Development Mission here today. Skill Development and Industrial Training, Minister, Sh. Mool Chand Sharma was also present on the occasion.

Additional Chief Secretary, Skill Development and Industrial Training Department, Sh. Raja Sekhar Vundru, apprised the Chief Minister that the courses being run by 11 departments have been integrated through this portal. With this, Haryana has become the first state in the country which has developed such a unique portal.

He said that through this portal, interested youth can select the courses and training centres available at district levels and soon a mobile application would also be launched in this regard.

Sh. Manohar Lal said that on Parivar Pehchan Patra portal, such youths who have registered themselves as unemployed should be skilled as per their educational qualifications so that they can become self-reliant.

Besides this, along with Saksham Yuva Portal and Rozgar Portal web link of this portal should also be linked with Jansahayak app so that the students studying in XII, graduation and post graduation can also get necessary information about these courses.

The Chief Minister said that with the launch of this portal, youth of the state can now get information about more than 200 courses being offered at 357 skill training centres.

To ensure that interested youth can choose better option, the skilled training centres have also been given a five star rating for certification and placement based on their previous performance, said the Chief Minister.

The Chief Minister said that the time duration of these skill development courses should also be made available on this portal so that the interested youth can choose courses as per their needs and preference. Besides this, self-financed courses with prescribed fee structure should also be started, directed Sh. Manohar Lal. He said that Soft skill courses can be offered. Under this, Japanese, Chinese or other foreign language can be taught.

Sh. Manohar Lal said that understanding the difference between education and a skilling is very important because skilling is key to identify anyone's talent. Similarly, even an employed persons need to get necessary training to increase their efficiency, said Sh. Manohar Lal.

He said that everyone has to update their mobile phones time to time so as to use new features, similarly there is a need for imparting continuous training to improve and update the efficiency of government officials and employees. For this, Haryana Institute of Public Administration is being imparting training to the government employees.
